

Job Description

Job Title:	Family Lawyer
Team:	Family
Reporting to:	Head of Department

An experienced member of the team, advising on all areas of private client family law, with a focus on the conduct of Financial Remedy cases.

This includes:

- Provision of legal advice and assistance to Laceys' existing clients, whilst developing your own client base
- Ability to manage cases at a level of complexity appropriate to your level and experience
- Providing supervision and guidance to others in the team as appropriate
- A fee earning role, representing clients in a broad and varied range of matters, for example:
 - Financial Remedy proceedings arising from divorce;
 - pre-nuptial and cohabitation agreements;
 - private law child arrangements cases (contact and residence);
 - financial remedy proceedings;
 - family law injunctions; and
 - child abduction (internal and external).
- Achieving reasonable targets that may be set for you from time to time
- Providing outstanding client care at all times and maintaining Laceys' highly professional approach
- Advising clients with integrity, committed to resolving matters constructively and with minimal conflict and reporting any concerns to the Head of Department
- Carrying out marketing, networking and other business development activities in relation to your area of practice and on behalf of Laceys generally
- Managing cases and files to a high standard and in accordance with SRA requirements, the Law Society protocol, Laceys' procedures and the LEXCEL quality mark requirements.
- Undertaking other appropriate duties as outlined in Laceys progression criteria, in accordance with the level of appointment
